THE DIAMOND ON THE HIRSH.

A Novel.

By MARIA JAMES.

1 vol. Paper covers. Price, 50 cents.

A leading critical journal lately the English Novels recently reprinted by D. Appleton & Co. represent a new school of fiction, in which the stories are at the same time interesting and pure, the moral tone high and the literary execution powerful. "The Diamond on the Hirsh" belongs to this class, of which it is one of the most successful specimens.

H.

THE VOLUME FOR 1872.

will contain nearly 300 pages, and about 200 engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautiful tinted picture on plate paper inserted as a frontispiece.

The character number for 1872 will be a special volume in itself containing fifty engraved plates in full, and although reduced at 1/2 will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers.

A CHROMO TO EVERY SUBSCRIBER.

was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and reproduced, at great expense, the beautiful oil painting by Saxe entitled "Dante's Inferno."

The chromo is lithographed and is exact in size, in the appearance of the original picture. No American chromo, which will compare with it has been published for the price asked for THE ALDINE and it together. It will be delivered free, with the January number to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance directly or in a club.

TERMS FOR 1872:

One Copy, one year, with oil Chromo..... $5.00

Five Copies, one year, with oil Chromo..... 20.00

Any person sending ten names and $40 will receive an extra copy gratis, making 11 copies for the money.

Any person wishing to work for a premium, can have our premium catalogues on application. We give many beautiful and desirable articles offered by no other paper.

Any person wishing to act permanently, our agent will apply, with reference, including $1 for entry.

HORACE GREENLEY'S NEW BOOK.

Another Edition Just Ready.

WHAT I KNOW OF FARMING.

KNOW OF

OF FARMING.

One of the best books ever published upon the subject. It does not consist of a lot of dry, dull essays upon Agriculture, but one can be interested in the author's views upon the growth as well as of the simplest writers in the world, in his most agreeable manner.

My Greeley has written this book in the plainest and simplest manner. He says: "I hope to be generally seconded the merit of having set forth the little I pretend to know in language that few can understand."

Mr. Greeley has closed his book: "With the general result that there seems slight interest in the author's domain and a lively interest in his improvements, and that many will be induced by them to read older and better works on Agriculture, and the sciences which minister to its interests, to turn their thoughts towards a perfection which few, if any, have ever attained."

The book is a remarkable one and the good sense, excellent advice, and valuable hints that it abounds in make it really valuable to any one in any sort of business, occupation, or profession.

* * * The book is published in a very handsome style. Beautifully printed, bound in elegant cloth covers with gilt back.

PRICE $1.50.
